Secretary Report

Minutes
Alesha: I’ve sent out an e-mail last week containing all of the minutes that needed to be approved. Did anyone have any problems with them?
   Luke: Motion to approve the past 4 meeting minutes.
   Josh: Seconds the motion
   motion passes

T-Shirts
Alesha: It’s my duty to place in an order for our SGA shirts. We’ve decided to do polo design like last year. The have been red and black in the past years. Does anyone have ideas?
Elena: How about we go for a dark blue. That’s something different.
Jekeyma: Or we can do a white polo with black lettering.
Luke: Will they be tight (fitting) like last year?
Alesha: Yeah, that’s a possibility.
Sean S: I don’t think we should do blue because it gets away from the school colors.
Alesha: Alright, I’ll look into those and have something for you in next week’s report.

Treasurer Report
(Given by Jewell Worley in Travis’ absence)

Jewell: We’ve received $1,215.87 from the High School Regional Leadership Retreat. Luke did an awesome job.
Jewell: Our main expenses came from candy and cups from the bookstore and Chartwells.
Luke: Are we still going to buy gifts for the other helpers?
Jewell: Stop by my office. We can give them a little something or write nice cards. Otherwise, Homecoming gave us $290.81 and we have $3,729.18 in SGA distributions.

Vice President Report

Mike: Welcome on this beautiful Friday. We’ll start off with Communications.

Communications

Elena: There are no updates. Our weekly meetings are on Wednesday from 11am – 12pm. Currently they’re being done during office hours.

Holly Ball

Tim: Security has been booked today. We need to select the menu choices, decorations, and party favors. The DJ has already been booked as well. Send an e-mail if you have any ideas. Steven and Sean M. need to see him after the meeting.

Mike: How have the meetings been?

Tim: Informal at the townhouses.

Mike: Roll call is important at committee meetings. They count just like the SGA meeting attendances.

Winter Spirits

Chris: Meetings are Wednesday at 1pm. The first dates are December 3rd – 7th. Things that are going to be done are:

* donation boxes for canned food goods
* movie night with SAB
* spend time with the children at Headstart
* visit the people at the Heritage Hall

Mike: If you’ve missed your committee meeting, please stay after today and give your explanation.

Open House

Bakarr: There was a PowerPoint presentation and a poster board. There was a good amount of people that showed up.

Mike: Are there any brochures left?

Bakarr: No.

Jekeyma: That did go very well. I saw the PowerPoint and voice presentation.

President Report

Unfinished Business

Cheerleaders

There are no representatives for the cheerleaders.

Teammates 4 Life
Sarah Frazier (representative): I’m here for Jared. He couldn’t make it today. We’re asking for $100 for gifts. We’re showing the Colts and Patriots game this Sunday in the Student Center.

Jekeyma: The only gift certificates that we can issues are to the bookstore.

Alesha: I noticed that you had some flyers out already for the event. I don’t blame the group for putting up the advertisements because the event is this weekend. I just wanted to let you know for future reference that whenever SGA helps fund an event, we ask that we be placed on the flyer as a co-sponsor. At the time, the money wasn’t allotted, so it’s alright this time.

Bakarr: How much are they asking for?

Jekeyma: They requested $100.

Bakarr: Can we give them more?

Sarah: Jared as already purchased the prizes and donated some of his own money.

Tim: Motion to allot $100 to the Teammates 4 Life.

Sean M: Seconds the motion.

motion passes

Jekeyma: If you will stop by Student Affairs sometime today, we can get the paperwork filled out.
