Communications

Elena: We are going to have two meetings, Monday and Wednesday from 11-12pm. Please attend if there is any dissatisfaction with our flyers.

Treasurer Report – Travis

Budget Report

There is $970.27 in the general funds and $1,529.66 in the SGA expenses. The SGA expenses will go towards the phone, copy machine, and extra expenses. There might be some extra expenses with Jam-4-Man and Spring Formal. We'll stick to spending the general funds.
Vice President Report – Mike

Open House

Bakarr: We are waiting for it to come. Come out and help if you can. It’s April 26th.

Mike: Jewell reserved the table. Bakarr, please bring the PowerPoint.

Jam-4-Man

Cody: Everything is on schedule. It’s on May 2nd and 3rd. A proposal was given to the administration.

Luke: We are going to pass out flyers and T-shirts.

Spring Formal

Bakarr: The glasses came in and so have the crowns. We are waiting for the day to come. More people can come out and help out. Let me know if you have questions.

Community Service

Luke: We met on Wednesday and did the campus clean-up. Seven members showed up. We also worked at the blood drive. We will pick out another event soon.

Mike: You might be able to help out MCA with the Senior Citizen Prom Night.

MCA

Meron stepped down as a senator for a proposal

Meron: We are requesting $75 for the Senior Prom night. It’s April 26th at 6pm at the Heritage Hall. The Community Service committee is planning on helping out. Phi Sigma Sigma is still undecided.

Josh: It’s only $75?

Meron: I know it’s not half, but it’s what we need.

Elena: Motion to approve a $75 allotment to MCA.

Sean M.: Seconds the motion.

Sean S.: Friendly Amendment > allocate $100 instead of $75.

friendly amendment accepted

motion passes

Pi Kappa Phi

Josh stepped down as a senator for a proposal

Josh: We are looking for support from the Community Service committee for help with the “War of the Roses” event. It’s for Push America Awareness. It will near Jam-4-Man, and we’ll have a luau with Special Education children during the week.

Elena: Can you give us some more information?

Josh: Yes, I can e-mail that to you.

Sean S.: Motion to support Pi Kappa Phi with the Push for the Cup event.

Elena: Seconds the motion.

motion passes

Teammates-4-Life

Luke stepped down as a senator for a proposal

Luke: We are asking for $150 for our last program by the lake on April 24th. It’s the bi-annual revival held by mark Estepp, and there’s always a great turnout. We’re working on a slip-and-slide and an egg toss event.

Meron: Motion to allocate $150 to Teammates-4-Life.
Tim: Seconds the motion.

motion passes

Jared: the T-shirts have been ordered for the event. Thanks for helping us out this year.

Art Guild

Tyger: We had asked for $200 for an Art Trip to North Carolina. Changes have been made for this trip, and we only need $100. It’s on May 3rd, and this will supply transportation and admissions to the museums.

Tim: Motion to allocate $100 to the Art Guild.

Sean M.: Seconds the motion.

motion passes

New Business

Pi Kappa Phi

Micah stepped down as a senator for a presentation

Micah: On July 25th – July 29th, we are planning on going to our bi-yearly Supreme Chapter conference. It’s in Denver, CO. We will be adopting amendments to our National Constitution. Rule and regulations will be discussed and awards will be given out to chapters. Alumni, grads, and undergrads will be present. The total cost is $2,250. The transportation and registration is $1,250 and we are asking for $625. A car wash raised nearly $500, and donuts were sold as well bringing in $500. Allocations from our fundraisers are given to Push America. We need whatever’s available for two candidates for this mandatory event.

Travis: We have currently $620.27 as of right now. That won’t be taken out until next week.

Micah: Our new Archon and another member will be the ones attending the conference.

Tim: How many meetings do we have left?

Travis: Two including this one. This is the only time that organizations can ask for money.

Jekeyma: We will table this for a week.

Micah: There are papers attached about the conference in the folder.

Open Forum

no items for open forum
Announcements

Meron: Who will appoint the International Senator?

Jekeyma: It's up to the next president.

Travis: It might be done during the general elections time.

Alesha: I think it needs to be done during the SGA meeting time.

Cody: Why?

Alesha: You want to make sure that the International Senator interacts with the International Students.

Advisor Report – Dean Jewell Worley

*There are no election results as of now. Stephen will be talking with the IT department later on today. An e-mail was sent out. There were about 200-250 students that voted. Homecoming and Spring Formal King and Queen will be elected on Tuesday-Wednesday.

*Congrats to the Miss UVa-Wise committee for a great pageant. The escorts looked great!

*Next Friday is the Student Leadership Banquet. It starts at 5:30pm. The Spring Formal will begin at 10pm that night.

Travis: How long will we have between the events?

Bakarr: We have the place reserved for Thursday and Friday.

Jewell: We do have a photographer. It will cost $20 upfront. They offer 2 5x7 and a sheet with 8 wallet sized photos. Also, thanks to the Community Service Committee for helping out the other day.

Luke: Will we have a group picture?

Jewell: Yes. We will also swear in the new officers next week.

Sean M.: Motion to adjourn the meeting.

Tim: Seconds the motion.

motion passes

Sean S. abstained from the vote

Meeting adjourned at 1:43pm
